

Psalm 150:1-6

SO MUCH TO BE PRAISEFUL FOR

- I. To Whom is Praise Expressed?
 - A. We praise the Lord exclusively!
 - B. God doesn't want angels worshiped, saints worshiped, preachers worshiped, worship leaders worshiped and definitely not yourself.
 - C. "This is who I am to you", "This is what I want from you", "This is what I have done for you", and "This is what I want from you".
- II. Where Does Praise Take Place?
 - A. Praise Him in His Sanctuary;
 - B. I would say anyplace, anytime.
 - C. where Gods people are gathered together and there are songs to be sung and a Lord who is alive to be praised, we engage in worship, we sing to Him.
- III. Why Should Praise Occur?
 - A. His mighty deeds; His excellent greatness.
 - B. you praise Him for "Who HE IS!"
 - C. Praise you are declaring a value.
- IV. How is Praise To Be Expressed?
 - A. Two ways, instruments that man has made, and with the instruments that God has given.
 - B. Music is a part of our expressions and praise to the Lord, it's part of the art that forms around praise.
 - C. Praise will transform you; it will change you.

Praise is a declaration based not only on what He does, but Who He is. So, I ask you, Who is He to you? Is He Lord, IS He Savior? Is He central to your life or is He just peripheral and you're okay with that?
